

Mark White graduated from the University of Akron in 1994 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting. After completing his undergraduate studies, Mark graduated from the University of Akron School of Law and was admitted to the Ohio Bar in 1997.

Mark moved to West Virginia and began his professional career in 2000 by working in the tax department of the CPA firm, Arnett & Foster LLC. In 2001, Mark shifted his professional focus to the State of West Virginia's legislature where he served as the Clerk, Analyst and Counsel for the House Judiciary Committee for 23 years. Mark specialized in parliamentary procedure, drafted numerous resolutions and pieces of legislation that were passed into law, and served on the team that impeached all five Justices of the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals in 2018.